1 Scholarships

This year the Eisteddfod will not be offering cash prizes or awards in any category. Instead we will be offering the following Scholarships: -

DANCE	Junior and Senior
VOCAL	Junior and Senior
CONTEMPORARY MUSIC	Junior and Senior
PIANO	Junior and Senior
INSTRUMENTAL	Senior

Each individual scholarship will only proceed with a minimum 3 participants. If there are less than the required three (3) entrants, contestants may still perform but the Scholarship will not be awarded. In the event that contestants decide to withdraw entry fees will be refunded upon request.

Scholarship amounts will be published on the website prior to the eisteddfod. They will be available to pay for tuition or instruments.

Open to residents of the South West only. Not available to professional, semi-professional performers, teachers or students studying performing arts at a tertiary institute.

2ENTRY FEES

DANCE NEW ENTRY FEES :

Registration Fee $10

There will be a registration fee for all dancers performing at the Eisteddfod.

The fee will entitle the dancer to a pass to the auditorium for all of dance week.

Dance schools are to send a list of all dancers to the eisteddfod office, within a week of close of entries. The office will then invoice the schools for the registration fees and send out the passes to the schools.

Registration fees are not required for WACE sections and School dance Groups (Sections DA7002 to DA 7232)

RULES SPECIFIC TO DANCE

AGE GROUPINGS

Some Sections have been identified as Junior, Intermediate or Senior instead of age groupings. The ages for these Sections are:

Junior	12 & Under
Intermediate	13 – 16
Senior	17 & Over

Participants in the solo Dance Section will not be permitted to perform outside their age group. For example a 15-year-old dancer can perform in 16 & Under Sections but not 18 & Under. For Duos/Trios and Troupes at least one person must be in the relevant age group, other members can be younger but not older.

NOVICE/OPEN SECTIONS

An entrant is eligible to enter the NOVICE Section if they have NOT previously been awarded a 1st place in any competition, Eisteddfod, festival or similar previously in the dance style they are electing to enter. The OPEN Section is for entrants who have been awarded a 1st place previously.

5.1 Acrobatic

Acrobatic Definition: There are two types of acrobatic tricks. The first being tumbling work, which is where the body is launched into a tumbling manoeuvre. Tumbling work can be aerial (where the whole body is airborne) or can remain grounded (where one or more body parts remaining in contact with the ground). Examples of these tricks include (but are not limited to) tinsceis, backflips, brahnes and cartwheels. The second type is contortion work where the body is stretched and bent to demonstrate flexibility of the legs, back and neck. Examples of these tricks include (but are not limited to) bend backs, swallows, and lamp posts. Be aware that the 'Acrobatic' genre is a dance style, not just a sequence of tricks.

WAPAE has decided to enhance this section by offering more benefits to the participants. Therefore after discussions with BREC the following extras can be made available: Lighting, Smoke, Fly-in (within reason), Disco Ball, Chandelier and/or Cyclorama and if required the Scrim. Tracks must be mp3 format.

Please note: it will NOT be possible for Dance School/Studio Banners to be hung from the back of the stage due to timing constraints.

By entering this Section you agree to the following:

1. Each Dance School/Studio will submit a Technical Form to BREC two weeks prior to the Event
2. You commit yourself to a 15 mins Tech discussion at a time and date mutually agreed upon by BREC, WAPAE Committee and your Dance School/Studio Representative.

DANCE SCHOLARSHIP

Sections performed as part of this Scholarship are not to be repeated in any other Section of this Eisteddfod.

DA7532 Dance Scholarship - Junior 3 Minutes
