SALLY BOUD – STRINGS

Sally Boud was born in Perth and studied viola performance with Berian Evans at UWA. After graduating with first class honours she continued her studies overseas, most formatively with Gertrude Rossbacher in Berlin. Upon her return to Australia in 1999 Sally became a founding member of the Tankstream Quartet. The Quartet toured worldwide and was a prizewinner in many international competitions, including first prize at the Osaka International Competition in 2002, second prize at the Premio Paolo Borciani in 2005 and first prize at the Cremona International Competition, also in 2005. From 2004 to 2005 the quartet was based in Berlin and studied with the Alban Berg Quartet in Cologne. In 2006 the quartet was invited to take on the name and role of the Australian String Quartet, performing nationally and internationally and premiering works by many Australian composers, including Brett Dean, James Ledger and Elena Kats-Chernin. Sally left the quartet at the end of their 2011 season to pursue a busy and varied freelance career.

In addition to her chamber music activities Sally has played with the Australian Chamber Orchestra, the Sydney Symphony and the Darwin Symphony, as Guest Principal Viola with the Adelaide, Tasmanian and West Australian Symphony Orchestras and as Guest Associate Principal with the New Zealand Symphony. She has appeared as a soloist with the Fremantle Chamber Orchestra, the Perth Symphony and Ensemble 1685.
