Welcome to the Bunbury Eisteddfod

Here you will find all the information you need regarding age groups, entry fees, rules and regulations, scholarships, time limits and specific section requirements.

We encourage you to read the document carefully. After reading, should you need further clarification please email admin@eisteddfodwa.org.au or call 0439 913 301.

We look forward to seeing you all at this year's Bunbury Eisteddfod.

The Eisteddfod Committee.

ENTRY INFORMATION

Dance Entries are via www.compadminpro.com.au

All other entries are via www.stardom.com.au

Mandatory Competitor Registration Fee - Entries are not valid unless this fee is paid. This grants the competitor entry to the auditorium for the duration of the Eisteddfod. Please choose the "Competitor Registration" section in Stardom. If entering via CompAdminPro, your competitor registration fee will be added automatically.

The mandatory registration fee is not payable by competitors who are only entering WACE sections, Choirs, Bands, Orchestras, Ensembles, School Dance Groups or All Abilities sections.

Dates for Entering

All entries will open on 1 February 2026
Dance entries will close on 5 April 2026
All other entries will close on 20 April 2026

Late Entries

Late entries will not be accepted.

RULES & REGULATIONS

ACCEPTABLE CONDUCT

All participants, teachers, parents, and audience members must behave professionally and treat others with respect and courtesy.

Unacceptable behaviour includes bullying, harassment, intimidation, or any actions or gestures that could reasonably cause distress or discomfort. Anyone deemed to be behaving inappropriately may be removed from the venue and may be banned for the remainder of the Eisteddfod, including the Gala Concert.

All performances and costumes must be age-appropriate and family friendly. If a performance is judged unfit for public presentation, it may be stopped and penalties may apply.

Audience members are expected to support and encourage all competitors.

Theatre Etiquette must be observed at all times. This includes remaining seated during all performances.

ACCOMPANIMENT

There is no official accompanist provided. Competitors must supply their own accompanist where required or preferred.

- Accompanists are recommended unless a section states otherwise.
- One photocopy of the accompanist's music is permitted and must be marked "Accompanist's Copy".

---

ADJUDICATION

- The Committee may appoint an assistant, co-adjudicator or substitute if needed. The adjudicator's decision is final.
- Competitors, teachers, and supporters must not communicate with the adjudicator. A written or verbal critique will be provided for each competitor.
- Competitors who have received lessons from the adjudicator within the previous three months may not enter. Awards may be withheld if sufficient merit is not shown.
- For novice dance sections, first place may be withheld if the adjudicator believes competitors would benefit from remaining in novice for an additional year.

AGE LIMITS

- Age is determined as at 30 June of the current year.
- For duos, trios, quartets, quintets, and ensembles, the oldest competitor determines the age category.
- Dance troupes are classified by average age.
- Excluding Dance, all solos/duos/trios/quartets may perform in an older age group.
- Age groups may be combined depending on entry numbers.
- The Committee may request proof of age.

AMPLIFICATION / MICROPHONES

Refer to specific sections or the Eisteddfod website for details of available equipment and competitor requirements.

---

BACKING TRACKS / MUSIC / SHEET MUSIC / SCRIPTS

- All files must be uploaded to Stardom (or CompAdminPro for Dance) by the date specified on the website.
- Competitors are advised to bring a USB backup on the day.

COMPETITORS

- The Bunbury Eisteddfod is open to amateurs, except where Open Sections allow professionals (note: “Open” has a different meaning for Dance—see Rules Specific to Dance in the Dance section of the Schedule).
- An amateur is someone who does not earn their primary income from performing or teaching the discipline entered or does not regularly participate in paid performances.
- Competitors may perform once only in any solo/duo/trio section (except All Abilities).
- Items may not be repeated unless expressly permitted in the relevant section.
- Competitors may appear in multiple choirs, groups, or troupes provided no delays occur.

COPYRIGHT

- The Eisteddfod operates under the copyright agreement of the Association of Eisteddfod Societies of Australia (A.E.S.A).
- Music performed from printed copies must be from an original edition or a legally permitted photocopy.
- In disputes regarding copyright use, the adjudicator's decision is final.

DRESSING ROOMS

- Dressing room space at BREC is limited. Competitors should arrive as prepared as possible.
- All dressing areas must be respected and left clean.

ENSEMBLES

- Ensembles must contain 4-19 participants.
- Groups should enter under a single group name rather than individual names.

ENTRIES

- All entries and payments must be submitted through Stardom (or CompAdminPro for Dance)
- Entries are not valid until payment is received.
- Most competitors must also select and pay the Competitor Registration Fee.
- Entries close on the date stated on the website unless sold out prior.
- Late entries are not accepted.
- Entrants must ensure they have entered the correct sections.
- Entry fees are non-refundable unless the section is cancelled.

GALA CONCERT

- Selected competitors may be invited to perform or receive awards at the Gala Concert.
- The Gala date is listed on the website.
- Performances are chosen to create a balanced programme based on adjudicator and Committee recommendations.

ORDER OF COMPETITION

- Competitors must perform in the order listed unless officially authorised to change.
- Failure to appear when called may result in disqualification.

PROTESTS

- Protests must be submitted in writing within 30 minutes of the relevant section and must be accompanied by a $50 deposit.
- The deposit is forfeited if the protest is deemed frivolous.

RECORDED ACCOMPANIMENT

- All recorded music is played through BREC's sound system.
- Only authorised personnel may sit with the sound operator.

RECORDING & PHOTOGRAPHY

- Where an official photographer/videographer has been engaged, audience members may not photograph or record performances due to copyright regulations.
- Where no official photographer/videographer has been engaged, photography/videography is allowed by immediate family members – please see the official Photography and Videography Policy on the Eisteddfod website.
- Breaches of the official Photography and Videography Policy will result in removal from the audience of the offending party and disqualification of associated competitors or schools.
- By entering the Bunbury Eisteddfod, participants consent to being photographed or recorded for Eisteddfod promotion.
- The official photographer/videographer may also use images to promote their services.
- Anyone who does not wish to be photographed must email the Committee prior to performing.

REHEARSALS

- No rehearsals are allowed at BREC during the Eisteddfod unless expressly permitted by a member of the Eisteddfod Committee.

REPETITION OF CONTENT

- Items may not be repeated in any other category unless expressly stated in the relevant section.

---

RIGHTS OF THE COMMITTEE

- Committee decisions on all matters relating to these Rules or the Schedule of Sections are final.

---

SAFETY

- Competitors perform at their own risk.
- Performances must be safe for competitors, staff and audience.
- The Eisteddfod or BREC staff may prevent a performance if safety is compromised.
- A section may be stopped if a competitor is seriously injured or at risk.

SCENERY, PROPS & COSTUMES

- Prohibited items include real flowers, fruit, vegetables, foliage, rosin, powders, flour, body oils, straw, loose glitter, live animals, and breakables.
- Props over 2m used for standing/walking must have a handrail and not exceed 2.2m.
- Groups using large items will be assigned a backstage area by BREC technical staff. Please contact BREC directly to arrange drop-off and collection times.

SCHOLARSHIPS

- A minimum of three competitors are required for prize money to be awarded.
- If fewer than three enter, fees will be refunded upon request.
- If there are fewer than three entries, competitors may still perform, but prize money will not be awarded.

SECTIONS

- All sections are other than All Abilities and Just For Fun are competitive.
- Open sections for Vocal, Instrumental, Speech & Drama allow entry by both amateurs and professionals.
- “Open” in Dance has a different definition—see Rules specific to dance in the Schedule.

SUPERVISION

- Competitors aged under 18 must be accompanied or supervised by an adult at all times.
- Schools must follow their own excursion supervision guidelines.

TIME LIMITS

- Approximate performance duration must be listed on the entry.
- Time limits must be observed. Penalties apply for exceeding limits.

DANCE

RULES SPECIFIC TO DANCE

Participants are not permitted to perform outside their age group.

Duos/Trios/Quartets are based on the age of the oldest member.

Troupes are classified by the average age of all dancers in the troupe, with age being as of June 30, in the current year.

NOVICE/OPEN Classifications

Dancers are classified as either Open or Novice.

Open means the competitor has previously placed first in that genre at any competition

Novice means the competitor has NOT previously placed first in that genre.

A dancer may be Open for one genre (eg hip hop) but Novice for another genre (eg tap).
