Adjudicator - Piano and Woodwind

MATT KLOHS

Matt Klohs is an Australian conductor, composer, clinician and adjudicator whose acclaimed Australian Defence Force career spanned over 3 decades. He has conducted professionally throughout Australia, the UK, the United States, Asia and Europe and continues to be in high demand. He has led performances by ensembles ranging from world renowned professional military bands to school ensembles, university and college ensembles to beginner bands, and community bands of all levels.

His passion for the life-long journey of learning and teaching sees him maintain a busy schedule as a clinician, adjudicator and mentor working with musicians of all ages and experience levels. He teaches online and from his home studio, and he is an alumnus of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music holding a Graduate Diploma of Music (Performance) in Conducting. His informative and positive adjudication style is regularly sought out with engagements at band and orchestra festivals, eisteddfodau, and contests throughout each year. He has adjudicated at eisteddfodau and festivals at Local, Regional, State and National levels in both Australia and New Zealand. Matt is the owner of a print music publishing business www.mattklohs.com, promoting Australian works from many emerging and diverse composers.

Adjudicator - Strings

NOELEEN WRIGHT

Noeleen Wright is a performer on both modern and baroque cello. She has performed extensively throughout Australia, for the Perth International Arts Festival, Melbourne International Arts Festival, Coriole Music Festival among others. She has been involved in numerous live broadcasts for ABC FM, recorded with ABC Classics, has worked with WA Opera on baroque operas and toured nationally for Musica Viva. As an early music specialist Noeleen performs regularly with Australian Baroque, St George's Consort and the West Australian Symphony Orchestra. She completed a Doctorate of Musical Arts at UWA in 2014 in the study of early Italian bass lines. In 2018 Noeleen was appointed as an AMEB examiner and is frequently called upon as an adjudicator for festivals and eisteddfods. As a pedagogue, Noeleen is in demand in both the private and metropolitan school contexts.
